ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Superintendent of Schools,

OF THE TOWN OF

NEW IPSWICH, N. H.,

For the Year ending March, 1880.

REPORT.

FELLOW CITIZENS :

A retrospective survey of the educational interests of our town during the past year shows that the measures of improvement begun under the supervision of our former worthy Superintendent, have received a cordial support from his successor. New Outline Maps have been introduced into all the school-rooms, except one, that had not previously been supplied ; some districts have purchased the entire set, while others have secured only those that seemed absolutely necessary. We consider the present system far from perfection, yet much thought is required for the full realization of a grander basis, as well as the hearty co-operation of all progressive advocates of learning.

In many respects an Educational Board of amply qualified members, would give better results than the present system of a single Superintendent and twelve Prudential Committees. Since we have an Academy, a Grammar School would be of great advantage and profit to all pupils ; it is hoped that this proposition will receive careful thought, and be realized at no distant time.

A report of the schools separately, is given in the succeeding pages, also the "Roll of Honor," containing the names of those scholars who have been neither tardy nor absent during each term, from which sickness does not exclude a pupil's name.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The new series of text-books introduced less than two years ago by a special committee, have met with universal approval. The "Franklin Readers" have been used for a long time, and a new series would be advisable, since the pupils would naturally be attracted by new subjects and gain more extensive information. The other books in use seem adequate for the present wants, and it should be the care of all teachers to prevent derangement in studies by not allowing any others to be used, as it would require but a short time to reach a chaotic condition, if no attention was given to the subject.

The Selectmen and Superintendent co-operating have taken advantage of the following clause in the General Statutes, [Chap. 89, Section 13]: "The Superintending school committee and Selectmen in the several towns in the State are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase for the use of their common schools so many copies of the map of New Hampshire as they may deem best, not exceeding one copy for each school, and the maps so purchased shall be paid for out of any money appropriated for school purposes," and have introduced nine State maps into nine districts for a commencement; the other school-rooms should be supplied early in another school year, and this should be one of the first duties of the next Superintendent.

Many are familiar with the following laws of the State, yet their insertion seems warranted:

"Any person, whether male or female, but in all other respects, except sex, qualified to vote in town affairs, may vote at any School-district meeting in the district in which such person has resided and had a home one month next preceding such meeting."

"School-districts having less than twelve to attend any term of school, may by vote at their annual or other legal meeting called for that purpose, authorize the Prudential Committee to provide for the attendance of pupils at the school of adjoining districts, the selection of such schools to be approved by the School Committee of the town, and in such cases the Prudential Committee is authorized to appropriate an amount not exceeding ten per cent, as in section first provided, ('For the conveyance to and from school, of pupils residing not less than one mile and a half from school',) and to divide the remainder of the money appropriated for the term in the district, among the adjoining districts, in proportion to the pupils by them received."

When students are provided with a good set of books, a certain innate pride is developed and a new era commenced in the pupil's life. Only several of our school-rooms have globes. This important desideratum can be supplied at a very small expense, and the Prudential Committee in those districts where the school-rooms are not supplied, should attend to the matter at the beginning of the next school year.

The more attractive the interior of a school-room is made, as well as the exterior, so much more enthusiasm is awakened among the pupils, and a healthier tone is manifested both in regard to God and their fellow-associates. Many of these improvements are inexpensive and a matter of concern to all parents. The character of both the future man and woman are developed, and in a great measure established in our primary schools; therefore let us all strive to enlarge their means for acquiring a most earnest desire for study at the commencement of their career.

The universal attention given to declamations and compositions is most commendable in our teachers. The use of a small History of the U. S., in every school would be advisable.

Since a fair number of the female voters assembled at the school meetings the past year, and proved themselves valuable co-operators in the selection of officers, their presence at all future meetings will be hailed with equal pleasure.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

Hiram P. Stevens, Prudential Committee.

Miss Lizzie M. Hale has had charge of this school during the entire year, and has won the affections of her pupils in a most extraordinary manner, thereby easily securing their earnest sympathy in all her instruction. The large attendance of friends upon the several examinations shows the regard of the parents and others for the teacher, as well as their admiration for the marked progress of the pupils.

The new State map has been added to the original thirteen maps, and with many attractive features introduced by the teacher, the bare monotony of the room very much relieved. The space devoted to the black-board is not adequate for so large a school, and the attention of the Prudential Committee is called to this.

The Summer term was taught by Miss Abbie A. Stickney ; good work was performed in the school-room, and the examination passed off satisfactorily.

Miss Mary L. Moreland was the teacher during the Winter term ; the session was quite long, yet the teacher's ambition was ever manifest, and considerable interest was awakened among the scholars.

The Prudential Committee purchased nine maps and has endeavored to make the school-room pleasant. The new State map has been introduced.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Eda L. Mansfield, Lottie M. Batten.

Second Term: Willie Pratt.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Frank E. Sawyer, Prudential Committee.

Miss Hattie E. Keyou was employed as teacher, both in the Summer and Winter terms. There were only two pupils in the Summer school, but a fair number assembled at the Winter session. The teacher's work was quite monotonous with so few students in the Summer term, but her exertions were amply repaid in the Winter term, and the pupils made a very good appearance at the examination.

The Prudential Committee has purchased two double maps for the school-room.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Eunice E. Winship.

Second Term: Jennie M. Winship, Eunice E. Winship, Lillian A. Winship, Bertha E. Wheeler.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Summer term, Miss Mary L. Moreland.

Fall term, Miss Genevieve Webber.

Winter term, Mr. George E. Strout.

It has been the endeavor of the Prudential Committee to keep up the same interest in the school as was secured the previous year. A new black-board, giving double the original space, has been put up, also the new State map added. The appurtenances of the school-room are now adequate for any teacher.

Miss Mary L. Moreland commenced the Summer term without any previous experience, yet endeavored to instruct faithfully.

Miss Genevieve Webber instructed in the Fall, and became very much endeared to her pupils. Her method of instruction showed that she anticipated the wants of her scholars, and gained their confidence.

Mr. George E. Strout was instructor during the Winter term, and conducted his school in such a manner as to give general satisfaction.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

Charles Wheeler, Prudential Committee.

Miss Anna E. Godding instructed in the Summer term, and showed herself fully acquainted with the management of a school-room.

Miss Annie A. Cutter taught during both the Summer and Winter terms. Good progress was exhibited at the examinations.

The Prudential Committee has added five new maps besides the State map, which with the old charts, gives ample means for the student in geography.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Evaline Maxwell, Hattie A. Wetherbee, Susie Blanchard, Emma G. Goen, Katie B. Goen, Simmie J. Mitchell, Willie A. Mitchell.

Second Term: Susie E. Blanchard, Katie B. Goen, Drusie M. Perry, Lottie J. Perry, Emma G. Goen, Alice Goen, Herbert C. Blaney, Simmie J. Mitchell, Willie A. Mitchell, Eddie Mitchell.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Thomas J. Hunttee, Prudential Committee.

There were only three scholars in the Summer term, which was taught by Miss Lizzie F. Perry, who endeavored to impart instruction in such a manner as to relieve the monotony as much as possible.

The Winter term showed an increase in the number of students, and was in charge of Miss Jennie L. Ellis who has taught school a number of terms in other towns.

The Prudential Committee has added a double map, while a number of old charts are found in the school-room.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Ella M. Hill, Willie S. Hill, Fleddie A. Silver.

Second Term: Ella M. Hill, Freeman W. Mansfield, Eddie M. Mills, Charlie F. Russell.

DISTRICT NO. 7.

Philip F. Gordon, Prudential Committee.

Miss Hattie D. Gordon, the teacher during the Summer term, exerted herself for the best welfare of her students ; a pleasant and interesting examination was the result.

The Prudential Committee, Philip F. Gordon, was advised to teach in the winter term ; he accepted and proved himself to be well acquainted with the requirements of a school-room. Mr. Gordon purchased a double map for school usage ; the State map was also introduced.

No names are reported for the "Roll of Honor."

DISTRICT NO. 8.

No school has been kept in this district during the past year. The pupils attended school in other districts by a special arrangement of the Prudential Committee.

DISTRICT NO. 9.

Jonas Wood, Prudential Committee.

This school has been under the direct control of the Rindge Superintending School Committee, J. S. Perry, for the past year. Miss E. H. Foster taught each term, and your Superintendent in visiting the school, formed a favorable opinion in regard to the teacher's thorough discipline and interest in her pupils.

Some maps are very much needed in this school-room.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

Mrs. J. E. Carr, Prudential Committee.

Miss Annie A. Cutter, the teacher in this school for several terms past, was secured for the Summer term. The scholars proved themselves quite tractable under her guidance and did credit to themselves.

The Winter term was taught by Miss Hattie D. Gordon, who earnestly endeavored to keep up the enthusiasm so manifest among the pupils of this school, and the work accomplished was fully appreciated.

The Prudential Committee purchased a double map for the school-room ; the State map was also introduced.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Emma L. Carr, Lottie C. Willard, Georgie E. Willard, Theodore P. Carr, Ernest E. Carr, Roy D. Carr.

Second Term: Emma L. Carr.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Adolphus Hanfield, Alphonso Lemay, Harrie Lemay, Freddie Parker, Bertie C. Preston, Willie E. Preston, Dora Bailey.

Second Term: Allan McConnell, Harrie Parker, Bertie C. Preston, Willie E. Preston, George Tasso, Edith Parker.

Third Term: Ernest Chapman, Bertie C. Preston, Willie E. Preston, Hattie Smith.

Miss Addie L. Moreland was the teacher in the Summer and Fall terms. This was her first experience in teaching, but she secured the good will of her pupils and the co-operation of the parents.

Miss Sarah A. Parry taught in the Winter term, exhibiting her usual fidelity and activity so well-known in many of our schools where she has been an instructor.

This district possesses the best school-house in town, and the pupils although so young and numerous, should be complimented for not injuring the room or furniture.

The Prudential Committee has furnished the room with a full set of maps; the State map has also been added to these.

ROLL OF HONOR.

First Term: Etta Sargent, Flora Cowdry.

Second Term: Alice Taylor, Flora Cowdry.
